ESTIMATES INCLUDE EXEMPTIONS; FOR AMOUNTS SEE "EXEMPTIONS," COMMERCIAL LAWS, BELOW.

COMMERCIAL LAWS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. Not used, affidavits take their place.

AFFIDAVITS. Those for deeds may be taken before a Commissioner of affidavits; a Notary Public, Registrar of Deeds, or his Deputy; a Judge of the Supreme or County Court, or a Justice of the Peace, within the Province; in Great Britain or Ireland, before a Supreme Court or Court of Sessions, or Scottish Justiciary Court Judge, or County Judge or Chief Magistrate of a City, Borough or Town under the seal of the Corporation, or a Commissioner of oaths of the Great Britain or Ireland Supreme Court, or a Commissioner appointed by Commission to take affidavits in and for the Provincial Courts, or a Notary Public under his seal of office. In Quebec before the Judge or Prothonotary of the Superior Court, the Clerk of the Circuit Court, or a Commissioner appointed by Commission to administer oaths in and for this Province, or a Notary Public under his seal of office. In the English Dominions before a Judge of Court of Record or of the Supreme Court, the Mayor of a City, Borough or Town, under corporation's seal; a Notary Public under his seal of office; or in India before a Magistrate or Collector, but in that case the Governor must certify as to the official character of such officer, or a Commissioner appointed by Commission to take affidavits in and for the Province. In any Foreign Country before the Mayor of a City, Borough or Town, under corporation's seal, a British Consul, Vice-Consul or Consular Agent, a Judge of the Court of Record or Notary Public under his seal of office, or a Commissioner appointed by a Commission to administer oaths in and for this Province. Other affidavits may be taken before a Notary Public, or Commissioner of affidavits authorized by the court within the Province; without the Province similar provision to deeds.

ARREST. Upon filing an affidavit satisfactory to the Judge showing a good cause of action in amount of over One Hundred Dollars, and belief that the defendant is about to leave the Province with intent to defraud, the Judge may issue an order directing the arrest. When the Plaintiff has recovered his judgment upon similar affidavit showing secret or fraudulent conveyance of property by the debtor, writ will also issue. Married women are not liable to arrest.

ASSIGNMENTS. Must run to the Sheriff of the Debtor's County, though if a majority of creditors with claims of more than One Hundred Dollars consent, a resident of the province may be appointed; creditors must prove claim by affidavit and state all security if any. Non-matured claims may be proved. Employees' wages have preference. None others allowed.

ATTACHMENT. Upon an affidavit showing that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff, and has absconded with intent to defraud or to avoid arrest or process, or is about to do so, and was or is possessed of property not exempt from levy, the plaintiff may procure a Judge's order directing a warrant to issue. In the Division Court, where the claim is between four and one hundred dollars, a similar warrant may be obtained.

BILLS OF SALE. (See Chattel Mortgages.)

CHATTEL MORTGAGES. Must be registered with the Clerk of the County Court, where the property is, within five days after execution, and also affidavits of a subscribing witness, and of the mortgagee, as to execution and bona fides; a lien of one year may be renewed by filing a verified statement, showing the mortgagee's interest and the amount due and payments on account, within thirty days preceding the expiration of the term.

CONDITIONAL SALES. No specific statutory provision.

CONSIGNMENTS. No specific statutory provision.

CURTESY. Life estate to husband in realty left by deceased wife, but he need not join in her deed.

DOWER. Life estate to widow of one-third of realty owned by husband.

EXEMPTIONS. Specified personal property, see Statute. Household furniture $150 in value, provisions and fuel $40 in value, animals $75 in value, fodder for thirty days, tools $100 in value, dog, fifteen hives of bees. Homesteads to settlers in Algoma and Nipissing Districts and lands between Ottawa River and Georgian Bay.

GARNISHMENT. Debts due to a judgment debtor may be reached by garnishment, except wages under twenty-five dollars, of mechanics and clerks.

HOLIDAYS. Sunday, January 1, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Victoria Day (May 24), December 25, Sovereign's Birthday, Thanksgiving Day, Dominion (July 1), Labor Day (1st Monday in September). Holidays falling on Sunday succeeding Monday is the legal holiday.

INTEREST. Five per cent., by express agreement, any rate. Banks may recover only seven per cent.

JUDGMENTS. A lien on lands from time Sheriff receives a writ of fi fa, for three years, and may be renewed from time to time, for the same period.

LIENS, MECHANICS, ETC. Must be registered in the office of the County Registrar within thirty days after completion, or seven days after the architect has given his certificate, or after refusal to give such certificate on application and must be enforced within ninety days completion.

LIMITATIONS. Twenty years: Adverse possession perfected; for rent upon demise; on covenant or for debt on a specialty, except a mortgage which with action to recover lands is ten years. Six years: Upon contracts or notes. Two years: For damages.

MARRIED WOMEN. May acquire and dispose of property as if unmarried; may contract with regard to her separate property; the profits of her trade or occupation or employment carried on separately from her husband are her property; may sue and be sued; if there be a decree of alimony against her husband or he be insane, imprisoned or neglects or refuses to support her or she through good cause leaves him or he deserts her, she may obtain an order allowing her to receive the earnings of her minor children. She is not liable to arrest.

NOTES AND BILLS. Bills not payable on demand, days of grace allowed except where bill otherwise provides. When last day of grace falls on a legal holiday or non-judicial day, the succeeding day being neither a holiday nor a non-judicial day, shall be the last day of grace.

REPLEVIN. Upon giving an undertaking to the Sheriff in three times the value of the property, in a case where it has been wrongfully taken or detained, it may be replevied under order of the Court.
